9th November 2020

Dear Parents/ Carers,

This year, we are holding Odd Socks Day. It's a chance for St Wilfrid's to celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a positive way by asking pupils to wear odd socks to school. There is no pressure to wear the latest fashion or buy expensive costumes. All you have to do to take part is wear odd socks, it couldn't be simpler!

Odd Socks day will take place on the first day of Anti Bullying Week, Monday 16th November to help raise awareness for Anti-Bullying Week. During the day the children will be getting creative as they will be doing Art throughout the day. The rest of your child's school uniform should be worn as normal.

As a school, we will be participating in a range of activities throughout the week, in line with our PSHE theme of Celebrating Difference, to promote the idea of respect. This will include more work on online safety.

We hope that the children will enjoy the week and find it valuable

Yours sincerely

Miss D Lee
Principal
