

Please complete these fluency/recall questions in the morning fluency practice book sent home daily. Teachers will go through the questions each morning, discussing the methods that can be used to answer/solve them and the pupils will mark them

Year 5/6 Fluency Homework - week beginning 18th May

Monday

1. $456,782 + 389,615 =$
2. $902,341 - 478,956 =$
3. Round 8,736 to the nearest 100 =
4. $3,742 \times 18 =$
5. A school has 2,456 students in Year 7 and 3,789 students in Year 8. They are split equally into 3 groups. Then 150 students are added to each group from another school. How many students are in each group now?

Tuesday

1. $678,923 + 145,876 =$
2. $800,000 - 356,489 =$
3. Round 6,483 to the nearest 10 =
4. $5,613 \times 24 =$
5. A shop sells 5,678 pencils on Monday and 4,321 on Tuesday. It then packs all the pencils into boxes of 1,000, and removes 2 full boxes for a donation. How many pencils are left?

Wednesday

1. $512,678 + 287,349 =$
2. $700,456 - 298,765 =$
3. Round 14.67 to the nearest whole number =
4. $4,285 \times 16 =$
5. A factory produces 2,345 items in the morning and twice as many in the afternoon. It then sends away 1,500 items, and splits the rest equally into 5 warehouses. How many items go to each warehouse?

Thursday

1. $834,219 + 165,780 =$
2. $999,999 - 543,210 =$
3. Round 3,846.52 to 1 decimal place =
4. $6,437 \times 12 =$
5. A library has 3,456 books in one section and 2,222 in another. It then donates 1,000 books, and shares the remaining books equally into 4 floors. How many books are on each floor?